BOSTON NOTION
 AND
GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE,
 FOR ONLY $5.00!!

We have made arrangements with the enterprising publisher of GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE, by which we are enabled to offer their Magazine and the Boston Notion for one year, for only five dollars!

It is idle for us here to enter into a detail of the superior character of Graham's Magazine—it has in one year acquired a celebrity and extent of circulation beyond that of any periodical in the world. For the year 1842, the Magazine is to be increased in the number of its pages, and other important and valuable attractions are to be added to it.

The next new works of BULWER, DICKENS, and JAMES, will be republished in the Boston Notion, quarto and folio editions. Heretofore, the works of these great authors have been almost entirely inaccessible to country readers, owing to the difficulties in receiving them in a book form. By subscribing for the Boston Notion, you will obtain the works of these master-minds at about one tenth of what they would otherwise cost you.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS TO THE QUARTO. We will furnish copies of the Quarto Notion No. 1, to all who wish it—a few numbers only having as yet been published—and the two volumes at the end of the year will contain 332 pages, a sheet of contents and title page to each volume.

Upon remitting $5 to Mr. Graham, of Philadelphia, publisher of the Magazine, or to the undersigned, a copy of the Boston Notion (quarto or folio edition) and Graham's Magazine for 1842, will be forwarded to you. The Quarto Notion will be sent you from No. 1, if you wish it. GEO. ROBERTS, Publisher of Boston Notion.

TANYARD.
 THE undersigned begs leave to inform his old friends and customers that he still carries on the TANNING business at his new tan-yard in the East Ward of Grenada Mississippi; where he has constantly on hand all kinds of well tanned LEATHER, which he will dispose of at prices corresponding with the hardness of the times. Leather will at any time be given for hides.

NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

PROSPECTUS.

THE Publishers of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, encouraged by the generous patronage and hearty approval which has been extended to their Daily paper since its establishment, and which already renders it the second in point of circulation in the city, propose to publish, on and after the 18th day of September, a WEEKLY edition, on a sheet of mammoth size, excluding all matter of local or transitory interest, and calculated mainly for Country circulation.

THE TRIBUNE—whether in its Daily or Weekly Edition—will be what its name imports—an unflinching supporter of the People's Rights and Interests, in stern hostility to the errors of superficial theorists, the influences of unjust or imperfect legislation, and the schemes and sophistries of self-seeking demagogues. It will strenuously advocate the PROTECTION OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY against the grasping and to us blighting policy of European Governments, and the unequal competition which they force upon us, as also against the present depressing system of State Prison Labor; it will advocate the restoration of a sound and uniform NATIONAL CURRENCY; and urge a discreet but determined prosecution of Internal Improvement. The Retrenchment, wherever practicable, of Government Expenditure and of Executive Patronage, will be zealously urged. In short, this paper will faithfully maintain and earnestly advocate the Principles and Measures which the People approved in devolving on Whig Statesmen the conduct of their Government.

But a small portion, however, of its columns will be devoted to purely Political discussions. The proceedings of Congress will be carefully recorded; the Foreign and Domestic Intelligence will be early and lucidly presented; and whatever shall appear calculated to promote Morality, maintain Social Order, extend the blessings of Education, or in any way subserve the great cause of Human Progress to ultimate Virtue, Liberty and Happiness, will find a place in our columns.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be published every Saturday morning, in quarto form, on a very large imperial sheet, (31 by 32 inches,) and afforded to subscribers at TWO DOLLARS a year. Six copies will be forwarded a year for TEN DOLLARS, ten copies for FIFTEEN DOLLARS, any larger number in the latter proportion. Payment in advance will be invariably required, and the paper stopped when ever the term of such payment expires. Subscriptions are respectfully solicited by

GREENLY & McELRATH, 30 Ann-st

A NEW SERIES OF TEMPERANCE TALES.

By T. S. ARTHUR, author of "Six nights with the Washingtonians," &c.

The extensive, and still increased sale, and the wide spread popularity of Mr. Arthur's "Six nights with the Washingtonians," and the urgent entreaties of many distinguished leaders in the Temperance cause, have induced the Subscribers to make an arrangement with that admirable writer to furnish another series of Tales from real life.

These Tales will be published in sixteen weekly numbers, at the low price of six and a quarter cents per number, neatly stitched up in handsome covers suitable for preservation. To those who have read the former series of Mr. Arthur's Temperance Tales, it need not be said that the forthcoming series will be not only deeply interesting, but will be calculated to do immense service to the great cause which they are designed to promote. Like the "Six Nights with the Washingtonians," the subject will be drawn from real life, and it will be the object of the Author to depict the horrors of drunkenness in all its varied and appalling forms, as exhibited in different classes and conditions of society, as well as to show the remedial means which Temperance associations furnish. In accomplishing this object, Mr. Arthur will bring to his aid the same acute observation; the same truthful delineation, the same clearness of narrative, and the same lofty morality, which have marked his former productions; and it may be confidently predicted that, through the influence he will thus exercise, many an inebriate will be rescued from the fangs of the destroyer.

The price of these Tales is purposely made very low, that they may be brought within the reach of all persons, and it is confidently hoped that all who desire to see the Temperance cause flourish will aid in their circulation. THE GREAT AMERICAN NEWSPAPER

DOLLAR WEEKLY.

Edited by T. L. NICHOLS, published by Herrick & Ropes, No 162 Nassau St. New York.

Every number of the Dollar Weekly contains twenty-eight columns of choice reading matter, equal to one hundred and fifty duodecimo pages, illustrated from three to six splendid original engravings.

Each volume of the Dollar Weekly, will contain one thousand four hundred and fifty six duodecimo pages, or fifty volumes of the choicest reading illustrated by more than a hundred, superb engravings, of scenes and characters in American life, by the best Artist. All for One Dollar.

To give an idea of the astonishing cheapness of the Dollar Weekly, the Publishers have made the following estimates. The original matter of each volume, at the most moderate price paid to writers of established reputation, will cost not less than five thousand dollars; the bare composition, or setting of type, will cost two thousand, without reckoning rent, materials paper, press work or incidentals, the Publishers incur an outlay of over TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The talent and character of Mr. Nichols, are familiar to the American people, and a sufficient guarantee of the sterling ability, the exciting interest, the high-toned morality, and perfect independence of the Dollar Weekly, upon all subjects, and all occasions. Splendid Tales, Choice Essays, Brilliant Sketches, and an infinite variety of articles of poetry, Wit, Humor, and Intelligence will fill its varied columns giving the bright and dark shades of our Social System. Its grand tendency will be toward reform, progress, individual enjoyment and social happiness in every thing, the elevation of many, and "the greatest good of the greatest number." This Complimentary Notice of the whole American press, afford the strongest evidence of its real merit, and the surest indication of unparalleled success.

The Dollar Weekly will be mailed to subscribers in any portion of the world for $1 a year in advance.

All letters to be addressed to HERRICK & ROPES, 162 Nassau Street, New York City.

THE MAGNET.

The subscribers propose to publish a periodical with the above title, devoted to the investigation of HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY, PHYSIOGNOMY, PATRIGNOMY, ASTROLOGICAL and HUMAN MAGNETISM. Having made these subjects matters of serious and patient investigation for some time past, and considering the increasing attention which has lately been given to them by the learned, both in this country and in Europe, it is believed that such a periodical is called for, and that it will meet with liberal encouragement from the lovers of science, in this and other countries.

One object of this work will be to excite and encourage a spirit of inquiry, and to assist in such investigation as may tend to settle the following, among other similar questions;

1. That the magnetic forces not only pervade all matter, but that every living being has a peculiar magnetic nature.

2. That these forces are the means of motion and sensation.

3. That every Mental and Physical organ, and every muscle has its corresponding magnetic poles.

4. That the magnetic forces from the different organs which terminate in the face, and by means of which the various expressions of Fear, Hope, Love, and Anger, etc., are expressed in the countenance, & the muscles & limbs are made to obey the human will.

5. That these organs may be excited separately, or their action modified by magnetism, as the condition of the patient may require.

6. That this magnetic nature is governed by laws peculiar to itself; and may be communicated from one person to another.

7. And as to what these laws are, the number, location and functions of the different organs; the location of the corresponding poles of the Mental and Physical organs, etc.

The subscriber has been engaged for some time in a course of magnetic cerebral experiments, the results of which go very far, as he believes, towards demonstrating these assumptions, and if they should prove to be true, all must admit that they are immensely important, as much so as any discoveries ever made illustrating the Physical or Mental natures of MAN.

The matter will be illustrated by numerous engravings, some of which are now ready for use, the whole rendering the work one of surpassing interest, and every way worthy of patronage from the curious and scientific, who wish to understand the mysteries of human nature. The plates will be of special interest, inasmuch as they will not only explain many magnetic phenomena heretofore unknown, or not understood, but one or more will be given designating those features in the human face where the magnetic courses terminate from the different physical and mental organs, a thing never before known; and thus will be seen the only true explanation of Physiognomy ever given to the world. In a word, the work shall be filled with new and valuable matter on every question relating to the Physical, Mental, and Magnetic natures of man; explaining the phenomena of Sleep-walking, Somnambulism, Monomania, Insanity, Madness, Dreaming and Manicisim; the whole designed to exhibit the claims of these subjects on the attention of the candid, and to assist them in ascertaining how far Magnetism has been, or may be, used as a medical agent.

In furnishing articles for its pages, the subscriber expects the assistance of a number of medical and scientific gentlemen of the highest respectability in their profession.

The MAGNET will be published once a month; each number containing twenty-four super-royal 8vo pages, with a printed cover.

Terms, two DOLLARS per year, invariably in advance. It will, in no case, be forwarded until pay for it has been received.

The first number will be issued as soon as five hundred subscribers shall have been obtained.

Any person procuring subscribers, will be allowed to retain the pay for the fourth, provided the balance be forwarded to the publisher, free of expenses.

Every Editor who shall give this Prospectus (including this paragraph) six insertions, shall receive the MAGNET, without an exchange, for one year, provided the papers containing this notice be forwarded, marked, to THE MAGNET, 130 Fulton street, New-York City.

LE ROY SUNDERLAND.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Southern Literary Messenger.

THIS is a monthly Magazine, devoted chiefly to Literature, but occasionally finding room also for articles that fall within the scope of Science; and professing no disclaim for tasteless selections, though its matter has been as it will continue to be, in the main original.

Party Politics and controversial Theology as far as possible, are jealously excluded. They are sometimes so blended with discussions in literature or in moral science, otherwise unobjectionable, as to gain admittance for the sake of the more valuable matter to which they adhere: but whenever that happens, they are INCIDENTAL only: not PRIMARY. They are dropped, tolerated only because it cannot well be severed from the sterling ore wherewith it is incorporated.

Reviews and critical Notices occupy their due space in the work: and it is the Editor's aim that they should have a threefold tendency—to convey, in a condensed form, such valuable truths or interesting incidents as are embodied in the works reviewed,—to direct the reader's attention to books that deserve to be read,—and to warn him against wasting time and money upon that large number, which merit only to be burned. In this age of publications, that by their variety and multitude distract and overwhelm every undiscriminating student, IMPARTIAL CRITICISM, governed by the views just mentioned, is one of the most inestimable and indispensable of auxiliaries, to him who does wish to discriminate.

Essays and Tales, having in view utility or amusement, or both—Historical Sketches—and Reminiscences of events too minute for History, yet elucidating it, and heightening its interest,—may be regarded as forming the staple of the work. And of indigenous rotry, enough is published—sometimes of no mean strain—to manifest and cultivate the growing poetical taste and talents of our country.

The times appear, for several reasons, to demand such a work—not one alone, but many. The public mind is feverish and irritated still, from recent political strifes. The soft, assuasive influence of Literature is needed, to allay that fever, and soothe that irritation. Vice and folly are rioting abroad; they should be driven by indignant rebuke, or lashed by ridicule, into their fitting haunts. Ignorance lords it over an immense proportion of our people. Every spring should be set in motion, to arouse the enlightened, and to increase their number; so that the great enemy of popular government may no longer brood, like a portentous cloud, over the destinies of our country. And to accomplish all these ends, what more powerful can be employed, than a periodical, on the plan of the Messenger; if that plan be carried out in practice?

The South peculiarly requires such an agent. In all the Union, south of Washington, there are but two Literary periodicals! Northward of that city, there are at least twenty-five or thirty! Is this contrast justified by the wealth, the leisure, the native talent, or the actual literary taste, of the Southern people, compared with those of the Northern? No; for in wealth talents and taste, we may justly claim at least an equality with our brethren; and a domestic institution exclusively our own, beyond all doubt affords us, if we choose, twice the leisure for reading and writing, which they enjoy.

It was from a deep sense of this LOCAL want, that the word SOUTHERN was engrained on the name of this periodical: and not with any design to nourish local prejudices, or to advocate supposed local interests. Far from any such thought: it is the Editor's fervent wish to see the North and the South bound together forever, in the silken bands of mutual kindness and affection. Far from meditating hostility to the North, he has already drawn, and he hopes hereafter to draw, much of his choicest matter thence; and happy indeed will he deem himself, should his pages, by making each region know the other better, contribute in any essential degree, to dispel forever the lowering clouds that so lately threatened the peace of both, and to brighten and strengthen the sacred ties of fraternal love.

The Southern Literary Messenger has now nearly completed its seventh volume, and seventh year. How far it has acted out the ideas here uttered, it is not for the Editor to say. He believes, however, that it falls not farther short of them, than human weakness usually makes PRACTICE fall short of THEORY.

This work is published in Monthly Numbers, averaging sixty-four pages each, at Five Dollars per annum, payable invariably in advance.

T. W. WHITE, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR, Richmond, Va. 1842.

A new Enterprise,
 By the former editor of the Saturday Evening Post and Saturday Courier.

Comprising the fruits of twenty years experience in the newspaper business; the aid of the most distinguished newspaper writers of the day; a valuable foreign correspondence; with troops of literary friends, and the determination to publish a newspaper for all classes, which shall not be surpassed!

PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY MUSEUM
 Of knowledge, news, & amusement.

A Family Newspaper, neutral in politics, opposed to quackery, and devoted to the useful arts, education, morals, health and amusement.

The tales, sketches, narratives, biographies, essays and poems, shall be of the first order; the best productions of the best writers of the day. Also articles on history, astronomy, chemistry, and all the useful arts and sciences, with a liberal portion of light reading, anecdotes, wit and humor; making a varied, rich and mirth inspiring Olio.

Life on the ocean.—Furnishing narratives of sterling adventures at sea, showing the courage and heroism of the bold Mariner, as

He springs from his hammock and flies to the deck, Wild winds and mad waves drive the vessel a wreck. The masts fly in splinters; the shrouds are on fire.

Foreign and domestic news, Congressional proceedings, and a general view of all matters of interest or importance will appear.

Pictorial embellishments, comprising maps, landscapes, architecture, portraits of distinguished personages of both sexes. In these, as well as in neatness of topography, the Museum shall not be surpassed.

Foreign correspondence.—Arrangements have been completed for securing a regular foreign correspondence, more extensive and complete than has ever enriched the columns of an American newspaper.
